

AirLink™ Helix RT Product Overview

Format: Online, Self Study

Duration: 30 minutes

Intended Audience

Anyone responsible for selling or configuring the Helix RT Enterprise 3G router. This includes Sales Personnel, Sales Management, System Engineers and customer care organizations.

Prerequisites

It is recommended that participants have a high degree of computer literacy. Additional skills in a mobile broadband environment and Microsoft Operating Systems are beneficial. Knowledge of the Sierra Wireless AirLink product portfolio is also beneficial.

Topics

Product Overview

Features and benefits

Device and accessories

Software Demonstration

Connecting to the Helix RT

How to set-up Wi-Fi

Port forwarding

Setting up a VPN

Setting up remote administration with ACEnet

Product Use

Implementation examples

Typical applications

Resources

Sierra Wireless website

Datasheets

Product page

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this online, self study demonstration, participants will be able to accomplish the following:

- describe the hardware and software components of the Helix RT
- describe the benefits and productivity gains offered by deploying the Helix RT
- identify sales opportunities for the Helix RT
- be aware of additional web resources
- successfully complete the assessment